Services:

- ✓ Some companies look for full-circle assistance on data review, plan preparation, staff education and more. Others simply want us to examine their numbers. We'll deliver exactly what you're looking for.
- ✓ One member of our expert team serves as your point-of-contact and remains in close communication during the entire process. This enhances efficiency and ensures your plan reflects your organization.
- ✓ The Employers Council is supported by an entire team of professionals at MRA (our sister employer association) who work together to ensure the accuracy and consistency of your employer information. Rigorous review up-front prevents problems later.

Why The Employers Council:

- ✓ The Employers Council's partner, MRA, has been preparing affirmative action plans and providing consultative services in this area for over 20 years.
- ✓ MRA's experienced staff has literally written thousands of plans.
- ✓ They have successfully assisted hundreds of companies through the rigorous audit review of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance (OFCCP).

Our team does what it takes to get you—and keep you—in compliance with government regulations. We go the extra mile to review your documents for compliance, including all relevant candidate and employee collaterals. Contact us today to learn how our experts can save you time and money and mitigate risk.
